Knowledge

Before we jump into our soul-searching and eye-opening questionnaire, let us spend some time with God in prayer. Take some time to pray, seek the face of God, open your mind to all of His possibilities and His will and purpose for your life.

Let us pray...

Father, we humbly come before you Lord, loving you and worshipping you. You are the King of all Kings and the Lord of all Lords. There is none like You. You and You alone are God. You are the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. You are the Author and Finisher of our faith. That which you have begun in us, you are faithful to complete it until the day when you return. So have your way in us Lord. Have your way in our hearts and in our lives. We confess our sins to you Lord and ask for your forgiveness. We confess that we are hopeless and helpless without you. We come before you right now Lord, thanking you for all the countless blessings you have given us and thanking you for your guidance as we seek your face. Open our hearts and minds now Lord, to get a glimpse from Your perspective. Help us to hear Your voice, help us to know Your will, and help us to follow You always. May we live lives of service to You and to those around us, in Jesus name, Amen.

GOD'S PURPOSE QUESTIONNAIRE

(Get out a pen and paper. Ask yourself the following questions. Write down your answers)

What are my natural talents and abilities (things I am naturally really good at like writing, singing, dancing, organizing, sports, acting, music, humor, people skills, etc.)?

What are some acquired skills that I have learned through the years (trade skills, like carpentry, electrical or plumbing; or computer skills, sales, sewing, make-up artist, film/production experience, cooking, story-telling, gardening, typing, etc.)?

What are my hobbies and interests (things I like to do when I have time, like poetry, reading, exercise, sports, visiting with people, talking on the phone, etc.)?

④ What am I passionate about, and who do I want to help (feeding people, teaching children, sharing Jesus with the lost, visiting the sick and praying for them, helping single moms, teaching people new job skills, visiting the elderly, etc)?

⑤ What do I love to do (act, share the Gospel, work with children, teens, or the elderly, feed the needy, teach, etc)?

⑥ What am I willing to fight for? What do I stand for (What causes or issues are very important to me? What are some causes that I believe in very strongly)?

⑦ What are my spiritual gifts & what areas have I seen the Lord use me in the past (love to teach, intercessory prayer, worship, study His word, outreach, preach, speak in tongues, interpretation of tongues, prophecy, gift of hospitality, faith, giving, Word of Knowledge, healing the sick, etc.)?

⑧ If I never had to worry about money, or supporting myself and my family ever again, and I could just do one thing for the rest of my life, just because it is who I am and what I love to do... WHAT WOULD I DO WITH THE REST OF MY LIFE?

⑨ If a very wealthy person contacted me and said that they wanted to pay for and support me in building some type of ministry that helps people, changes lives, shares the Gospel, and is something I love to spend my time doing anyway, WHAT TYPE OF MINISTRY WOULD IT BE?

If I knew I only had 1 month to live, what are the 5 most important things I would do?

EXTRA QUESTIONS

01 What did you love to do as a kid?

04 Who do you want to be like? Why?

02 When you were a child, what did you want to be when you “grew up”?

05 Can you describe your “Perfect Day”?

03 What was your best day ever? What were you doing?

06 If you could write the script of your life (with no limits) how would it read?

Now that you have compiled a list of gifts, talents, abilities, passions, causes, desires and priorities... Pray about it and look it over through the eyes of what type of ministry can I start or get involved with where my gifts, etc. can be most effectively used to serve both God and man.
